

Another Great Kimono Blow-Out Sale

Japan-America Society is Selling 1,000 Used Kimono, Haori, and Yukata

Back by popular demand, JASW is selling used kimono at our office. In 2008, a donor gave JASW 1,000 used kimono, haori, and yukata.

Almost 80% are for women, and no two designs are alike.

The quality and condition vary.

Wear them — or use the fabric to tailor your own clothing, create home décor items, or make crafts.

Prices range from $15 to over $100. Most are in the $45-$60 range

All sales are final.

All proceeds from this sale will be used to support the Japan-America Society's many educational and cultural programs in the greater Washington DC region.

Paul MacLardy author of Kimono- Vanishing Traditions will be signing books, and evaluating Kimono .

Another Great Kimono Blow-Out Sale
Monday, December 14 to Friday, December 18
10:00 am—5:00 pm

Special extended hours on Thursday, December 17
10:00—7:00 pm

At the Japan-America Society Offices
1819 L Street NW, Lower Level
Washington DC 20036

We accept VISA, Mastercard, and cash

Questions: Call 202-833-2210 or email jaswdc@us-japan.org
The Japan-America Society is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization