Japan in 2013: A Look at the Year Ahead Domestic Developments and International Impacts

Thursday, January 24, 2013
Registration: 9:30 A.M. – 10:00 A.M.
10:00 A.M. – 4:00 P.M.
Capital Hilton
Federal Room
1001 16th Street, NW

As the New Year begins, join 100 of the top Japan experts in Washington as we take a look at the year ahead.

"Japan in 2013" will focus on prospects for Japan over the next year in both the domestic and international arenas. Keynote speakers include Dr. Gerald L. Curtis of Columbia University (domestic prospects) and Japanese foreign policy commentator Yukio Okamoto (international). The one-day symposium will feature two panel discussions, a networking luncheon and reception, and a significant opportunity for comments from the floor. The tentative schedule for the day, including speakers and panelists, can be accessed below on the second page.

The symposium is presented by the Japan-America Society of Washington DC, with support from The Sasakawa Peace Foundation and the National Association of Japan America Societies. There is a nominal $25 charge for JASW members and $35 for non-members, to include the luncheon and reception. Space is limited, so sign up now.

Pre-registration is required due to limited space. Please register on-line at www.jaswdc.org or file out the bottom portion and mail or fax a copy to Japan-America Society of Washington DC.

Payments MUST be made in advance to JASW by the registration deadline of Monday, January 21 at 5:00 P.M. Please note that cancellations after January 21 will not be refunded. There is limited seating.
