

Indiana Council on World Affairs, Inc.
established 1955

WHERE GOES THE NEIGHBORHOOD:

JAPAN AND THE RISE OF ASIA

Wednesday, March 7, 2018
The Willows on Westfield, Indianapolis, Indiana

Presented by

Indiana Council on World Affairs &
Japan-America Society of Indiana

with

National Association of Japan America Societies &
Sawakawa Peace Foundation

Welcome and Introductions

Larry Cimino, Program Chair, Indiana Council on World Affairs

Dinner

Acknowledgements

Larry Cimino, Program Chair, Indiana Council on World Affairs

Greetings

Theresa Kulczak, Executive Director, Japan-America Society of Indiana

Program:

Peter Kelley

President, National Association of Japan America Societies

Kunihiko Miyake

President, Foreign Policy Institute; Research Director, Foreign and National Security Affairs-Canon Institute for Global Studies; Visiting Professor, Ritsumeikan University, Japan

David Shear

Former Principal Deputy Under Secretary of Defense for Policy; United States Ambassador to Vietnam (fmr); Chairman, National Association of Japan America Societies, Washington DC

Question & Answer

WORLD AFFAIRS COUNCILS OF AMERICA

